

Are you the next Nathan Webb?

The first trial for next season's FEDO squad will take place next month. In a bid to find the next Nathan Webb (right), 18, or Charlie Wassmer (below), 19, who both went through the FEDO scheme and are now currently playing for Hayes and Yeading's first team, FEDO will be opening its doors to any County Level footballer or above from the ages of 16-18 to attend a trial.

The FEDO scheme is an opportunity for students to gain a recognised educational qualification and work towards achieving their football ambitions with the assistance of high quality coaching and the potential to play in the East Berkshire College and Hayes & Yeading United youth teams.

The scheme commenced in 1997 and has attracted a wide interest from schools, professional clubs, local authorities, parents and ambitious young players who are keen to benefit from the expertise and excellent sporting facilities offered by East Berkshire College and Hayes & Yeading United FC. The scheme has been very successful with players progressing through to Hayes & Yeading United FC's reserves and first team.

Several players who have completed the FEDO scheme at East Berkshire College have gone on to represent the county and English colleges.

The trials will be held at:

Brunel University Sports Grounds,
Kingston Lane, Uxbridge UB8 3PH.

Any players wishing to attend should arrive for 11.30am on Thursday 24th February at the 3rd Generation pitch for registration, with shorts, socks, shin pads and appropriate footwear for this artificial surface.

To find out more information on the FEDO scheme and the latest news, go to www.fedo.org.uk

East Berkshire College
Five star commitment

